is urged to be present and help to make a good start.

Licensed to Wed.
Clerk Hook yesterday issued another marriage license to Pittsburgh people.
They were Thomas L. Pennington, aged twenty-four, and Mollie Maloney, aged twenty-five, and as usual merely came to Wheeling for a little trip.

Transfers Recorded.
Clerk Hook yesterday admitted to record a deed made July 1 by L. A. Rolf and wife to Herman G. Rolf, for $1,200, lots 65, 66, 67, 68, 69 and 86 at Park View.
Also a deed made July 6 by Barbara, wife of George Zilles, to Joseph S. Link, for $750, a lot on the west side of North Huron street.

A $10,000 Damage Suit.
Catharine Davies, administrator of the estate of David Davies, has brought suit in the common pleas court against the Cleveland, Lorain & Wheeling railway company, for $10,000 damages, for the death of her son on May 5. Young Davies, who lived at Etna mill, and was run over by the cars.

A Big Excursion.
Next Monday morning an excursion will leave Wheeling under the auspices of the National Educational Association.
The literary contemplates stop-offs at Sagoy Springs and New York city, a trip up the Hudson to Albany, thence across to Buffalo, Niagara Falls and Chautauqua. The tickets are good to return until August 15.

A Good Speculation.
Two years ago Mr. William Crookard bought the Moundsville skating rink site and property for $700. Since then he has used $100 worth of lumber and sold the rest of the building for $200, and the other day he disposed of the land itself. A profit in two years of $1,000 on a purchase costing $700 is a pretty good speculation, and speaks well for Moundsville.

Two Interesting Contests.
Two interesting contests have been arranged for the coming butchers' picnic early next month. In addition to the repetition of the calf-killing contest of last summer between a Pittsburgh and Wheeling butcher, there will be a contest between two apprentice boys as to which can dress a sheep quickest.
Mayer's band has been engaged to furnish dance music on that occasion.

Returned to the Soup.
Luther Hess, who was in the workhouse for six months, and recently walked out, was recaptured by the police yesterday and taken back. He explained that he got tired of living on bean soup and thought he would go home and get a square meal.

Yesterday Luther was trying to clean out the Sixth ward, and Officer Fahey took him in and placed a new charge against him.

Glassworkers' Delegates.
Travelling Passenger Agent O. R.
Wood closed arrangements yesterday for the transportation of most of the forty or fifty delegates to go over the Wheeling & Lake Erie railway to the national convention of glassworkers at Corning, N. Y. The delegates from Wheeling and Moundsville will leave the Union depot at 9:45 this morning and will be joined at Martin's Ferry by the delegates from there, Bellaire and Bridgeport and a little farther along by Steubenville delegates.

Three Children Hurt.
While a ten-year-old girl named Eldler, living on McCulloch street, was crossing the street near her home, she was struck by a buggy, knocked down and run over. Her collar bone and one rib were broken, and she was painfully bruised.

A boy named Wagener, living on Eighteenth street near Eoff, fell into a sewer opening, and was pulled out with difficulty. He was badly bruised and skinned.

Mary Shai, aged fourteen, living in East Wheeling, was running in her father's yard, when she stumbled and fell, striking on her right arm in such a way as to fracture and crush the bones badly.

THE FIRST OF THE SEASON.

A Good Sized Crowd Departs for Atlantic City over the Pan Handle.

YESTERDAY quite a crowd of Wheeling people departed on the Pennsylvania Company's first excursion to Atlantic City and New York, every berth in the special sleeper, which runs through to Philadelphia, being taken. The main body of excusionists left on the 4:20 p. m. train, and the scene around the station prior to the departure of the train was animated and picturesque, a large number of interested friends having gathered to bid good-bye and shake hands with the people about to depart. They were all sure of having a great time at their annual outing at the seashore.

Among those who left were Mr. and Mrs. L. V. Blond and daughter, Miss Emma; Mr. and Mrs. Edward Haslett, bound for Asbury Park to spend the summer; Mr. Platoff Zano and wife and Mrs. Steenrod; D. G. Nixon and wife; W. Williams, the island druggist; C. H.
Wheeler and wife and James McCann, wife and son, for Atlantic City; Frank Hearne, Peter Boyd, S. M. Rice, Mrs. P.
Rice, Misses Florence Rice, Millie and Pearl Stein, Mrs. P. R. Haley, Julius Isenberg, Misses Baumer and Louis Mandel and Mrs. T. W. Pinney and daughter, for New York.

A number of people from suburban towns were also on the train. This is the first of a series of excursions at a popular rate to be given by the Pennsylvania railroad, all heretofore having started from Pittsburgh. Excursions will also leave on July 21 and August 4, and already a number of Wheeling people have engaged berths for them.

A PRETTY GOOD GUESSEER.

The "Onlies" man who Foresaw Stevenson's Nomination.

As long ago as February 27, 1890, over two years ago, a party of gentlemen gathered by chance in the office of City Clerk Thoner got into a discussion of the probable nominations of the two parties on the national ticket in '92. It was agreed that each should write his prediction and sign his name, and this done, all the guesses were sealed up in a large envelope and put in a pigeon hole in the vault.

The circumstance was forgotten until the envelope was accidentally discovered yesterday. Then it was opened.

One guess was remarkably close, considering the date and the circumstances.
It was that of Mr. George H. Parks, of Chicago, who predicted the nomination by the Republicans of Harrison and McKinley, and by the Democrats of Cleveland and Stevenson. Nobody else in the party mentioned Harrison or Stevenson.

Mr. Parks added also that if Stevenson were nominated he would carry Illinois; but as he missed it in one respect it is allowable to hope that he is also "off" in this prediction.

Several of the amateur prophets did not give a name for the Democratic Vice President, but said he would be an Illinois man.

THE DEADLY ICE WATER.

A Well Known Iron Worker Falls a Victim to its too Free Use.

Adolph Hoch, a well known and popular employe of the Riverside mill, died suddenly yesterday morning at his home on Eighteenth street. He became overheated Wednesday evening while at work, and drank freely of ice water. About 4 o'clock yesterday morning he was taken suddenly and violently ill, and had to be removed to his home. A physician was summoned, and remedies applied, but he suffered great pain till about 6 o'clock, when he died. His death was almost undoubtedly due to his too free use of the excessively cold ice water used at the mill.
It should serve as a warning to others under the same circumstances.

Hoch was a married man and leaves a wife and family.

DEATH OF MR. I. F. STEWART.

A Veteran Nailor and a Popular Man Passes Away.

The many friends of Mr. Isaac F.
Stewart will be pained to hear of his death, which occurred yesterday morning at twenty minutes after nine o'clock.
He was fifty-five years old.

Mr. Stewart was one of the first nail-ers employed at the LaBelle iron works, and kept at his trade until about three years ago, when he was seized with nailers' consumption, to which disease he at last succumbed. He was much respected by his employers and his fellow workmen, and his widow and children have the heartfelt sympathy of all in their deep affliction.

Mr. Stewart was a veteran soldier, having served in a Pennsylvania regiment during the war. He was a comrade of Stephens Post, G. A. R., and a member of Welcome Lodge, A. O. U. W., and of Philo Council, National Union.

NOTES ON NAVIGATION.

Stage of Water and Movements of Boats.
The River Interests.

The marks on the landing showed last night that the river was still falling, with 9 foot of water in the channel.
The reports from above were:
Brownsville—4 feet 11 inches and falling; clear and warm.

Warren—2 feet 7 inches; clear and warm.The steamer Congo passed up for Pittsburgh at 3 o'clock this morning.

The Batchelor will leave for Pittsburgh at 8 a. m. to-day, and the Ben Hur for Parkersburg at 11:30 a. m.

to-day, as the Scotia, whose day it is, has burned out a boiler and is lying up at Pittsburgh for repairs.

The wife and children of Pilot Albert Mackey, who is on the Scotia in place of Capt. James Rowley, are making a trip on the boat with him.

The Iron Queen arrived at Cincinnati with the largest list of passengers Tuesday that has been taken into that city since the war. She had 335 cabin passengers.

The steamer Iron Queen left for Pittsburgh yesterday at 6:30 a. m. The Hudson passed down for Cincinnati at 8 a. m. The Bedford got away for Pittsburgh at 9 a. m., and the Courier for Parkersburg at noon.

A. J. Sweeney & Son have closed a contract with Captain Berry, of Williamstown, for a small passenger and freight boat for the upper Ohio trade.
It will be 115 feet long by twenty feet beam and of the stern wheel pattern.
